PROPOSALS FOR PUBLISHING AN
HISTORY OF THE LIFE
OF THE ILLUSTRIOUS
GEORGE WASHINGTON,
Commander in Chief of the American Armies during our revolutionary war with Great Britain, first President of the United States, and since, Lieutenant General of the Army.
BY JOSEPH SCOTT,
Author of the Modern Geographical Dictionary,
in four volumes octavo.
OF the various methods which different writers pursue in order to convey useful knowledge to mankind, Biography stands confessedly among the first. There is none more interesting—none more instructive and entertaining. The histories of distinguished heroes, who have, by their exalted virtues, and noble and splendid actions, been the principal means of redeeming their respective countries from the corroding hand of tyranny, have in all ages been considered the most entertaining, instructive, and important to mankind. They afford example; and example is more powerful than precept It strengthens, by a plain and easy mode of analogical reasoning, the principles of the timid, determines and fixes those that are wavering, and ultimately lays the basis for that harmony and coincidence of sentiment among the citizens; from which only, a nation can hope to derive rank, consequence and stability.
Impressed with lively sentiments of the eminent virtues of that distinguished HERO and PATRIOT, the history of whose life I have undertaken to write; it was not till after much reflection I resolved on issuing these proposals. —The following considerations induced me to this; First, having obtained in the course of an extensive correspondence, with many gentlemen of talents and information, a large stock of original materials concerning the life of this Illustrious Citizen; to give form and body to these, in the manner of history, will preserve many important things that otherwise would most probably be lost. Secondly, as many of the most interesting transactions of his life, since he resigned his commission as Commander in chief of our revolutionary armies, are very imperfectly recorded, and little understood; yet the greater part of them being fresh in the memories of many, this must be the fittest time to embody them; before a succession of objects, which every day brings forth, wears off the minuter circumstances There are many of these circumstances important and interesting; as it is universally acknowledged, that great actions, like immense rivers, flow from small beginnings.
CONDITIONS.
I. The Life of General Washington will contain nearly 400 pages octavo, printed on fine paper, and in a style of elegance equal to any work that has appeared from an American press.
II. It will be embellished with a striking likeness of the General, executed by one of the first artists.
III. Subscribers' names will be annexed, as patrons.
IV. Each subscriber is to pay two dollars, one half on subscribing, the remainder on the delivery of the work.
☞ Subscriptions in this city are received at No. 297 Arch street, next door to the north west corner of Eighth street.

NEW-YORK, January 7.

The Liverpool Packet arrived this morning, failed the 15th November, from Liverpool.

She failed in company with a number of veſſels for different ports of Europe, on the 12th November. In the afternoon of the ſame day, they experienced a moſt tremenduous gale from the N. W. and was obliged to put back to repair. In this gale 13 veſſels were wrecked, ſome of them full of paſſengers for Ireland and Scotland; and ſeveral hundred dead bodies were taken up that and the next day, having floated on ſhore. The ſhip Friendſhip from Norfolk for Liverpool, cut away her maſts and drove aſhore; ſome of her hands periſhed.

The ſhips Lydia and Portland ſailed for New-York, about the 1ſt. November. The Neſtor, Commerce and Stockport had alſo ſailed.

LONDON, November 10.

Preparations are in conſiderable forwardneſs for an expedition, whoſe ſucceſs will be a deadly ſtroke to the powerful, though at preſent inactive, Marine of the enemy.

The French government, we are informed, have caoſed it to be intimated to the Senate of Hamburgh, that on receiving a contribution of 11 millions of livres, they will forgive the inſult done them in the ſurrender of Napper Tandy and his aſſociates.—A leſs ſum it was believed, would be accepted, and amity reſtored through the agency of citizen Rheinhard, the French miniſter for foreign affairs; who is repreſented as much attached to Hamburgh, from having reſided there and married the daughter of a phyſician named Rumarus, who ſtill practices in that city.

The embargo ordered by the Executive Directory on all veſſels bearing the Hamburgh flag, had not excited much ſenſation at Hamburgh; the event having long been expected, the Hamburgh traders had time either to leave France, or to hoiſt the Daniſh flag, under which many of them have ſince left the ports of the Republic.

About an hundred letters from the Helder, brought thence by a paſſport, were yeſterday delivered from the Poſt-Office; they are dated two days ſubſequent to the mail, but do not contain any matter of moment. The troops were for the greater part embarked, and we are taught to expect their arrival in England as immediately as the wind will permit.

The troops remaining in Holland on the 3d inſt. conſiſted of the 5th regiment, the 3d battalion of the 9th, the 31ſt, 56th, and 69th, beſides Ruſſians. There were more tranſports at the Helder than were neceſſary for their conveyance.

The Ruſſian general Herman, on the 25th ult. continued at Liſſe. He was much indiſpoſed—he declined all ſociety excepting that of his two adjutants.

The late accounts from Switzerland repreſent the army of Maſſena to have been for upwards of four months without pay, and nearly deſtitute of both cloaths and proviſions.

The Dutch Democrats are ſtated to have been greatly indignant with General Brune for his convention with the Engliſh, conceiving that the relative ſituation of the two armies entitled the Republicans to even more favourable terms.

The new French army of the North is rapidly forming in Brabant; it is to conſiſt of two diviſions of 12 000 men each; the one to be encamped near Antwerp, the other on the Meuſe. Bournonville had the inſpection and organization of it.

Government, on Thurſday, received diſpatches from the Theatre of War on the continent. Their ſilence on the ſubject has induced a report that their contents were unfavourable; and ſome of our journals have inſinuated, ſome diſaſters to the allies in Italy We moſt ſincerely hope the inference will prove unwarranted by fact.

We are happy in being able from the beſt authority to ſtate, that the reports which have for ſome days paſt prevailed of a contagious fever having broken out at Liſbon, are wholly unfounded.

The Merchants of Liverpool have, with their accuſtomed wiſdom and liberality, eſtabliſhed a fund for the ſupport of commercial credit in the preſent eventful period.

The Weſt-India fleet is appointed to ſail from Portſmouth on Thurſday next. Several ſhips for America will take advantage of it.

We regret to learn, that a tranſport foundered on Scroby Sand on Wedneſday night, when, it is added, 74 Artillery men, with their officers were drowned. The crew, conſiſting of 5 men, eſcaped.

Napper Tandy and his aſſociates were yeſterday removed from Newgate, to be conveyed to Ireland.

The total amount of failures which have taken place in Hamburgh, from the 6th of September to the 25th October, is twenty-ſix millions ſeven hundred and fifty-three thouſand ſeven hundred and fifty three Banco Marks.

The Duke of York, on landing at Yarmouth on Sunday, (attended by General Dundas, Colonel Brownrigg, and Sir H. Popham,) was met by Lord Duncan, in whoſe carriage his Royal Highneſs was conveyed to the houſe of the Noble Admiral, by the populace, who took away the horſes and drew the coach. The Duke arrived in town at ſix o'clock on Monday morning, and ſhortly after ſet off for Windſor, where after a ſhort ſtay with their Majeſties, he proceeded to the Dutcheſs at Oatlands.

We are gratified to learn that the Marquis of Huntley is much recovered from his wounds. He and the Hon. Colonels Forbes and Oſwald, and Captain Gordon, landed at Leith on the 30th, from a ſloop of war which conveyed them from Holland. Captain Gordon is likewiſe recovering.

The Hereditary Prince of Orange, it is ſaid, is to have the command of the 6000 Dutch troops at the Iſle of Wight.

The wounded troops at Colcheſter, amount to 900; accommodation has been provided for 1200 more.

The guards have arrived in town from Holland; from whence 7000 Ruſſians put into Yarmouth on the 7th, in their way to Guernſey.

The Bank Directors are ſaid to be in treaty with the Miniſter for the renewal of their charter, which has but a few years to run, and for which, it is added, they are required to pay four millions, being twice the amount paid on former occaſions.

It is ſaid that Mr. Pitt, having been informed that the brewers purpoſed to add a halfpenny to the price of each quart of porter, intimated, that in the event of their doing ſo, government would draw from the article an additional revenue.

The halfpenny per quart which the brewers purpoſe to add to the price of porter, is calculated to produce a revenue of 700,000l. per annum.

Count d'Artois, on arriving at his houſe in Welbeck ſtreet on the 3d, received, it is aſſerted, a meſſage from high authority to return to Guilford.

An officer of high rank is ſaid to have been committed to Newgate on a charge of treaſon.

Burn, the Covent Garden dancer, has returned from America, and is at preſent in Ireland.

The letters brought by the laſt Liſbon mail were delivered on Friday after being fumigated. It was reported that an infected cargo from the Mediterranean had been landed at Liſbon, and that ſymptoms of the plague had ſhewn themſelves in that city. We hope and believe, as the letters make no mention of ſuch a circumſtance, that the report is unfounded.

It is ſaid that Louis XVIII. will ſoon return to Germany.

The Hamburg papers throws the blame of allowing the ſeizure of Napper Tandy upon the King of Pruſſia who, as Preſident of Lower Saxony, ſhould have protected Hamburg.

The palace of the King of Reccan, on the coaſt of Ava, is ſaid, amongſt its unparalleled riches, to contain ſeven idols of gold as large as life, covered with diamonds of immenſe value.

It is ſaid there have been but eighteen fine days in Germany ſince the commencement of the laſt ſpring.

On Monday laſt 37 female convicts were ſent from Newgate on board the Speedy, at Long Reach, to be conveyed to Botany Bay.

The Hamburg mail received on Wedneſday relates, that 300 Auſtrians were expected to have arrived at Ancona on the 31ſt of October, to take poſſeſſion of the fortreſs, the French General refuſing to deliver it to any other than regular troops.

From Aleſſandria, October 7, it is ſtated, that on the preceding day the Auſtrians obtained an important victory over the French, and opened the communication between Ceva and the camp before Coni, which place they had ſurrounded, and which they were immediately to beſiege.

From Milan, of the 10th, it is ſaid, Gen. Melas had defeated Gen. Championet with the loſs of 4000 men. The head quarters of the latter were at Finale, and his army conſiſted of 40,000 ſtrong

Accounts from Vienna, Oct. 19. mention a number of recruits having been ſent from thence by waggons to upper Italy, whither gen. Froelich with his troops and 4000 Ruſſians, had been ordered to proceed from Rome; from which city it is ſaid, under the date of October 5, that the tree of liberty and tri-coloured cockade had been burned when the Neapolitan flag was hoiſted at St. Angelo.

From Genoa, under date October 3, it is ſaid General Klenau had repulſed the French to the walls of the city, and poſſeſſed himſelf of the heights upon which he was erecting batteries. General Championet had ſent his ſick and wounded to Nice. Many of the Genoeſe merchants had emigrated, in conſequence of which their properties were confiſcated. Want extended over thoſe who remained, whoſe miſery was increaſed by heavy contributions.

The body of the late Pope was depoſited in the cellar of the houſe he had inhabited at Valence, from which his confeſſor and the prelates Spina and Caraccio were ordered not to depart. The French continued to reſiſt all entreaties to permit the remains of the pontif to be removed to Rome.

From Switzerland, October 17. It is ſaid that General Maſſena had threatened to enforce the demand of contributions from Baſle.

Accounts from Darmſtadt, of the 22d and 23d October, relate that the French, on entering Manheim and Heidelberg, declared they would treat the Palitinate as a hoſtile country, and ordered in each conſiderable contributions. In Franconia the peaſants were riſing in a maſs. It was reported that Gen. Sztarray had driven the French from Heidelberg.

From Frankfort, Oct. 22, it is ſaid the French had attacked the peaſants and troops of Mentz, by whom, however, they had been defeated.

From the Mayn, Oct. 22, it is related that 18,000 French purpoſed to attack, and winter in the Dutchy of Wirtemberg; to prevent which the peaſants were arming, whilſt the Auſtrians joined in preparations to repel the enemy. Gen. Hohenloe was on the 18th within 6 miles of Heilbronn, with 6000 men; and general Sztarray was advancing from Carlſruhe.

A treaty of peace, commerce, fiſhery and navigation, has been concluded between his catholic majeſty and the emperor of Morocco at Mequineg.

Importation and price of Wheat.

We feel conſiderable pleaſure in ſtating, that large quantities of foreign wheat have been imported into this country during the laſt week, and we have reaſon to believe that the ſupply will be continued and extenſive. At Bridlington, Wells, Lynn, Ipſwich, &c. &c. the importation has amounted to ſeveral thouſand quarters. In the port of London, within the ſpace of five days, it was as under:—From Dantzic, 16,339 quarters; Pillau, 3,599; Elbing, 1,570; Stralfund, 1012; Emden, 1387.

Price of grain in Leiceſter market:—Wheat 3l. 10s. to 5l. 10s. per quarter: Barley 2l. 7s. to 2l. 17s. Oats 1l. 15s. to 2l. 2s. Beans 3l. 4s. to 4l. The influx of Wheat has conſiderably reduced its price. Barley, Oats, and Beans continue dear.

"Diſtinguiſhed merit, in whomever it may be found, always meets our ready commendation. The following detail affords us particular pleaſure, as, in doing juſtice to ſome gallant fellows, it records an act highly honorable to a people whom we wiſh to again and forever eſteem as a ſecond part of ourſelves.

"At ten o'clock on the morning of the 28th ult. Scilly N. N. E. diſtance 35 leagues, the ſhip Waſhington, from London for Philadelphia, J. Williamſon, commander, was attacked by a French privateer, with 25 guns on her gun-deck, and 4 on her quarter-deck, when a cloſe action commenced, in which the Waſhington's 24 corronades upſet, and ſhe was left to depend on 8 twelve pounders; ſhe, however, made ſo good a uſe of their guns, that at eleven o'clock the privateer made ſail to repair her damage, the Waſhington being too much cut in her riging to be able to follow.

"At twelve ſhe again bore down, and at half paſt one renewed the fight, which was continued with great warmth for an hour and a quarter, when ſhe ran with all the ſail ſhe could carry, leaving the Waſhington's braces, tail-ſheets, ſtanding and running rigging, and all ſails cut to pieces; her three maſts and crotchet-yard rendered uſeleſs, and the entire ſhip a mere wreck; but fortunately with only one man killed, and two wounded.

"The intelligence was brought by a Swede from Smyrna, which adds, that the wind being too far to the northward to fetch even Ireland, captain Williamſon propoſed to ſtand for Liſbon, where we truſt he has ſafely arrived with his gallant ſhipmates."

COMMUNICATION.

Thoſe who have attended to the courſe of political events for ſome years paſt, cannot but have obſerved, the remarkable deſection of the great Oracles of the Jacobin faith, from Congreſs, and apparently from the duty which they owe to their cauſe.

Aaron Burr, Munroe, John Taylor, Madiſon, Giles, Venable, and Jackſon of Georgia, amongſt many others, are ſtriking inſtances in point.

It was weakly imagined by many, that theſe luminaries of Jacobiniſm retired under a conſciouſneſs of having been eclipſed by the ſuperior brilliancy of their antagoniſts; and that their ſullen, moody diſcontent, would influence to ſilent or ſubmiſſive inactivity, under a conviction of the forceful, overbearing operation of that Conſtitution, and thoſe prejudices which they had ſo long combatted in vain.

They retired, nevertheleſs, with far other ſpeculations in their heads: Like the Arch-Fiend, they retired; and curſed as baffled they departed: leaving to their young Calves (a blatant throng) the taſk of be-rating in vain, under the tutelage of Nicholas, thoſe forms and thoſe ſyſtems, which yet muſt prevail, theſe potent Bulls roar themſelves to a more favoring audience. The Primary Aſſemblies once corrupted, the power and authority thence derived, muſt needs be alſo corrupt. This is literally a natural operation: lies, blaſphemy and ſedition rained down upon the people, unavoidably produce diſcontent and commotion; and while the fountain continues turbid and rough, it will be folly to expect that its dependant ſtreams be placid or pure.

FRENCH ATHEISTS.

While the Theophilanthropiſts are meeting in ſome of the principal churches in Paris, the Atheiſts, on their part, have alſo eſtabliſhed a kind of worſhip. The following articles are extracted from the Proſpectus lately publiſhed by that monſtrous ſect.

"The men without a God profeſs a worſhip of which virtue alone is the object: this conſiſts in proclaiming good actions during the lives of their authors, and in honoring thoſe who perform them after their death."

"The men without a God keep a great book open, in order to collect all the traits honorable to the human race. This book, the material object of the worſhip of the men without a God, is to contain all the good that has been, or that ſhall be done. At the moment of their admiſſion into the ſociety, they lay their hand on the book of virtue, and pronounce the following words: I promiſe and engage to combat inceſſantly, with the arms of reaſon alone, the great and fatal error of a belief in God."

"The ſociety of men without a God publiſhes an account of the life of each of its members. The men without a God renounce all ſhare in the magiſtracy, that they may take a part in that of thought. They never eat at the houſes of other perſons."

If the French had not proved themſelves, in a thouſand inſtances beſides, capable of the moſt atrocious crimes, as well as monſtrous abſurdities, one could hardly imagine that ſo much nonſenſe and impiety, as the foregoing creed contains, could enter into the head of a rational being.

Surely, ſurely, a ſtate of PEACE with ſuch infernals, muſt be an offence to Heaven.

A RECEIPT to make the YELLOW FEVER.

There are various modes of generating this dire diſeaſe, but as vegetable putrifaction is the moſt certain, gather a quantity of vegetables, confine them in a cloſe place, and to haſten their putrifaction, ſprinkle them now and then with warm water. From the experience of ſome years, green coffee has been found to be the moſt proper, if it is well moiſtened with bilge water. A maſs of this kind, collected at the four corners of the city, would act in all directions of the wind, and could not fail to produce the moſt ſudden and deleterious effect.

Probatum eſt.

I am induced by pure public ſpirit to communicate this invaluable ſecret, as an eaſy and cheap proceſs; that certain adepts may not engroſs the manufacture to themſelves, as they have ungenerouſly attempted to do for ſome years paſt. It is poſſible, the reſult may depopulate Philadelphia in a ſhort time, but that will be of no conſequence, if we aſcertain the experiment. What are a few thouſand lives to a Philoſopher, if they are ſacrificed to perfect ſcience?

A Receipt to cure the Yellow Fever.

Hang the firſt Captain that imports it, and baniſh the Academy of Medicine. This is a ſhort preſcription, but infallible; and, with due ſubmiſſion to the bench and jury, I will venture to aſſert that, unleſs ſomething effectual is done, to prevent its introduction from abroad, and to deter a certain claſs of men from boreing and diſtracting the minds of the people with their extravagant phyſical, and metaphyſical crudities, Philadelphia will be ruined by their joint operations. As ſoon as the heat of ſummer comes on, every diſorder will be pronounced the yellow fever; the rich will fly to their country ſeats; and the poor will ſtay and periſh either of the doctor, or the diſeaſe, or perhaps of both combined. Probandum.

ANACREON.

ODE 40—IMITATED.

ONCE a Bee, unſeen while ſleeping,
Touch'd by Love, from roſe buds creeping,
Stung the Boy, who blood eſpying
On his finger, fell a-crying:
Then both feet and pinions ſtraining
Flew to Venus, thus complaining.

"Oh! mamma, mamma, I'm dying,
Me a little dragon ſpying,
Which the ploughman-tribe, ſo ſtupid,
Call a bee, has bit your Cupid."

"Ah! quoth Venus, ſmiling ſhrewdly,
If a bee can wound ſo rudely,
Cupid, think how ſharp the ſorrows,
Caus'd by thy envenom'd arrows.

The Sumite MATERIAM veſtris of Horace ſeems to have been utterly forgotten by that Member of Congreſs, who, having riſen to ſpeak, found he had nothing to ſay.

We are credibly informed, that the Corporation of the German Reformed Church have politely granted to the Cincinati Society, the uſe of their building, in Race-ſtreet, on the 22d of next month, for the delivery of the Eulogium by Major Jackſon, on the death of General Waſhington.

We alſo underſtand, that the Rev. Dr. Rogers has been requeſted to introduce the ſolemnities of the day, on that mournful occaſion, by a ſuitable prayer.

Union Brigade, New-Jerſey, Dec. 27, 1799.

WE attended yeſterday, the Funeral Honours paid, to the Great, the illuſtrious General George Waſhington, at the military ſtation of the Union Brigade, conſiſting of the 11th, 12th and 13th regiments of Infantry, under the command of William S. Smith, Lieutenant Col. of the 12th.

The ſolemnities of the day were introduced at the Reveillie Drum, by the diſcharge of 16 rounds, from the Brigade Artillery, which continued the fire of ſingle guns, every half hour, until the Sun had gained the Zenith; when, a BIER, preceeded by five of the Rev. Clergy of the adjacent congregations, carried by four non-commiſſioned officers, covered with a pall, ſupported by Major Gen. Dayton, Major Gen. Frederick Frelinghuyſen, Brigadier Gen. John Noble Cummings, Brigadier Gen. Jonathan Ford Morris, Brigadier Gen. John Doughty Brigadier Gen. John Herd, Brigadier Gen. Anthony Walton White, and Col. John Neilſon, preſented itſelf from a marquee, in front of the Centre of the Cantoonment.—Upon the appearance of the Bier, it was received by the line in full parade, with preſented arms, and the line of Officers ſaluted with expreſſive reverence, this emblem of the Corpſe of the departed Hero, their beloved General and Chief Commander.

By ſignal of unmuffled drum, the line ſhouldered, reverſed their arms, the rear ranks cloſed the front, and officers took poſt in battalion, by ſignal, the line broke to the right, in open column, with the right in front, faced to the right about, and in inverted order commenced an affecting proceſſion.—With countenances indicative of the very deep impreſſion, which the loſs of their General, and the remembrance of his virtues, had made on their minds, no noiſe was heard, except the minute guns of the artillery, and the ſolemn tread, of the ſlowly moving battalion, keeping perfect time, with the meaſures of a ſolemn dirge, performed on muffled drums, with the accompaniment of of the "ear piercing fifes" by the muſicians of the Brigade, marching in center of the open column.

The column preceded by the Bier, which was attended by four or five thouſand mourning citizens, who added to the ſolemnities of the day, by apparently having their hearts duly affected, by gratitude to to the father of their country, whoſe death they were deploring.

HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES.

WEDNESDAY January 8.

The bill, intitled "An act for the relief of John Vaughan," was read a third time, and paſſed.

Mr. Kitchell preſented ſeveral remonſtrances and petitions of the inhabitants of New-Jerſey, againſt the alien and ſedition laws, and the acts for raiſing a military force, praying for the repeal of the ſaid acts, which were read, and ſuch parts thereof as related to the army, referred to the committee of the whole Houſe, to whom were committed the reſolution of Mr. Nicholas.

Mr. D. Foſter, from the committee of claims, to whom were referred the petition of Seth Noble, reported, that the prayer of the petitioner ought not to be granted: which report was read a ſecond time, and concurred in by the Houſe.

Mr. Waln preſented a memorial of Wm. Nichols, late Marſhall of the diſtrict of Pennſylvania, praying the reimburſement of certain monies advanced by him in the execution of his office, which was read and referred to the committee of claims.

Mr. Griſwold, from the committee of reviſal and unfiniſhed buſineſs, according to order, reported a bill intituled "An act to provide for mitigating or remitting fines, forfeitures and penalties ariſing in certain caſes therein mentioned," which was read a firſt and ſecond time, and committed to a committee of the whole Houſe.

Mr. Fowler preſented a petition of—— King, a ſoldier during the revolutionary war, praying to be placed on the penſion liſt: referred to the committee of claims.

On motion of Mr. Harper, the petition of Stephen Sayre, undecided upon the laſt ſeſſion, with the papers accompanying the ſame, were referred to the committee of claims.

A written meſſage was received from the Preſident of the United States, by Mr. Shaw his Secretary, incloſing a report of the Director of the Mint, which was ordered to be printed.

Another meſſage from the Preſident, in writing, was alſo received, informing the Houſe, that he had, conformable to the unanimous reſolution of Congreſs of the 21ſt ult. addreſſed a letter to Mrs. Waſhington, requeſting her conſent, that the remains of her beloved huſband, might be interred in the Capitol of the Federal City; and that her conſent had been obtained, and was expreſſed in a letter which he therewith tranſmitted. The meſſage and letter accompanying it were ordered to be printed.

The Houſe went into Committee of the whole on Mr. Nicholas's reſolution for repealing certain acts authoriſing the raiſing an army, &c. Mr. Morris in the Chair; when Mr. Bayard delivered a very lengthy ſpeech againſt the reſolution, and Mr. Nicholas in favor of it—who was followed by Mr. Gallatin on the ſame ſide, till a late hour.

A motion was then made that the Committee riſe—which was loſt; Ayes 45; Noes 49.

Mr. Hartley then made a few obſervations, and ſtated his reaſons for voting againſt the reſolution.

Mr. H. Lee, then went into an examination of the arguments of Mr. Gallatin, and oppoſed the reſolution at great length; when another motion that the Committee riſe, was put and negatived—Ayes 43—Noes 52.

After Mr. Nicholes had replied to the ſeveral gentlemen who ſpoke againſt the reſolution, the motion for the committee to riſe was renewed and again negatived—ayes 44—noes 50.

Mr. Macon then ſaid, if gentlemen were determined to take the queſtion this evening, he would firſt deliver his opinion; and went into an examination of the ability of this country to ſupport the enormous expences which would be ſaved by the paſſing of this reſolution, the inutility of the army, &c. after which,

Mr. Eggleſton renewed the motion for the committee to riſe—It was an old adage, Mr. E. ſaid, that hunger commonly made men peeviſh, and if the motion was not agreed to, he would be induced himſelf, perhaps, to give his obſervations now upon the ſubject.

The motion for riſing was put and carried, Ayes 48—Noes 46.

The Houſe then adjourned, at a quarter paſt 5, till eleven o'clock to-morrow morning.

A PROCLAMATION

By the President of the United States of America.

A COMPENDIOUS SYSTEM

Of Practical Surveying and dividing of land; briefly comprized under the following heads, viz.

TWENTY-THREE Geometrical Definitions, eleven Geometrical Positions, exhibiting to view the properties and dependencies of triangles; followed by problems and examples preparatory to Trigonometry, heights and distances. Then fifteen problems and examples necessarily previous to calculating a Survey succeeded by seven surveys, the area of the four first is found geometrically, and of the whole number by difference of latitude and departure, shewing how to take an inaccessible boundary, find the bearing and distance of the closing line without running it, also the distances to an inaccessible corner from the two adjacent corners, followed by examples of offsets on to winding streams of water, shewing how to ascertain the area without the trouble of measuring the windings with chains and instruments—a crooked water course straitened, and a quantity of land on each side found by these offsets.

Ten examples of dividing land, with many sub-divisions, leading into the most critical circumstances that can occur in practice; an example of Intersections, and an example shewing how the bearings of a field may be truly taken where the needle is attracted, altho' the attraction may vary in quantity and denomination at every station; examples shewing the method of measuring by the chain only. All the rules are clear and explicit. This work contains the tables of difference of latitude and departure and of logarithms.

Orders sent to Joseph and James Cruckshank, Booksellers, No. 87, High-street, Philadelphia, Bonsall and Niles, 173, Market Street, Baltimore, or the Subscriber in Wilmington (Del.) will be duly attended to.

Those who have the care of subscription papers for this work, are raquested to send their respective numbers as soon as possible, to whom the quota's will be sent agreeably to the proposals.

TO THE PUBLIC.

THE time being fixed on, when the MILITARY LAND (commonly called Knox's) WARRANTS, granted to the United States' army, are to be registered and located,—the subscribers have explored that tract of land on which those warrants are to be laid; with a view, and for the purpose of offering their services as locaters.

We take the liberty of suggesting, "that weare at least as well acquainted with the situation, quality of the soil, &c. of the different townships in the aforesaid tract, as any other person:" this will, perhaps, appear more clearly, by observing, that WILLIAM C. SCHENK assisted in running the Indian boundary line; at which time he considerably traversed that tract: he also assisted in surveying and laying it off into townships, and at other times ranged over it, to gain information. But to obtain a more complete and accurate knowledge, we have lately spent between two and three months, with several assistants, in particularly examining the different townships and quarter townships; by which means we have acquired an accurate knowledge of the whole district.—We now offer our services to the public, as Locaters, with assurances that we will locate every persons warrants intrusted to us to the best advantage, agreeably to their rights of location, which is to be determined according to law. For our services we demand the one equal tenth part, either in lands or warrants, when we locate a full tract, of four thousand acres or more, for one person or firm; the land to be taken in a square, at a corner of the tract; which corner is to be equitably determined before the time of location.—The one equal sixth part, in cash or warrants, when we connect and locate any amount less than four thousand acres. We will be in Philadelphia from December next, until after the time of location, to transact this business. Any person wishing to satisfy himself farther, will please to call on us, by letter, (postage paid) or otherwise; when due attention will be paid, and such vouchers may be seen as we have to offer, which we hope will be satisfactory.

The Swift-Sure,

A NEW LINE OF STAGES,

NOW RUNNING BETWEEN

PHILADELPHIA & NEW-YORK,

By the short and pleasant road of Bustleton, Newtown, Scotch Plains, Springfield and Newark.

THE excellence of this road, the populousness of the country through which it passes, with sundry other advantages, which render it so far preferable to the Old Road through Bristol, Brunswick, &c. long ago suggested the propriety of its becoming the Grand Thorough-Fare from Philadelphia to New York. During the present year, a minute survey of it has been taken, and its superiority over the Old Road, both in winter and summer, has been clearly ascertained.—There are good bridges over all the other waters but the Delaware, and here the crossing is performed with great safety and in less than half the time required at the Trenton Ferry. The road is several miles shorter than the old road, but this is amongst the least of its advantages, because daily experience proves to us, that dispatch as well as comfort in travelling principally depend on the goodness of the road and the levelness of the country, and, in these respects, the New Road is, beyond all comparison, the best. It presents none of those rocky hills, which render the Old Road so fatiguing between the Delaware and Newark. The soil, too, for the greater part, is such as to produce but little mud in winter, and very little dust in summer, which circumstance, added to the beauty of the country, and a considerable proportion of shade, must always render travelling in the latter season peculiarly agreeable.

The Swift Sure starts from PHILADELPHIA, at 6 o'clock every morning (Sundays excepted) from the GREEN TREE, opposite the Lutheran Church, North Fourth street. It goes through Frankford to Bustleton, where it stops to Breakfast; from Bustletown it goes through Newtown to Penny-town to dinner; from Penny-town through Hopewell, Millstone, Bound-brook, Quibbletown and Plainfield to Scotch Plains to lodge. The next morning it stops at Springfield to breakfast, from whence it goes through Newark and arrives at New-York at noon.

From NEW-YORK it starts at 3 o'clock in the afternoon (from Paulus Hook) and arrives at Philadelphia the next evening. For seats at New-York, application may be made to Edward Bardin, Old Coffee house, to A. Mathieu, corner of Nassau and John streets, to B. Many, no. 48, Courtlandt, corner of Greenwich street, and to Michael Little, at his hotel, no. 42, Broad street.

Fare for passengers, Five Dollars.
Way passengers 6 Cents per Mile.

Each passenger is allowed to take on 14lbs. of baggage carriage free; but all other baggage, taken on by a passenger, will be charged at 4 cents per pound weight.

With respect to packages sent on without passengers, the proprietors presume they have adopted a regulation, which, though unknown to other lines of stages, they think must meet with general approbation, They pledge themselves to make good every package on the following conditions. The person who delivers the package at the office shall see it entered in the stage-book, for which entry he shall pay 6 cents; he will then state the value of the package, and pay (exclusive of the carriage) one per cent. on the value, as insurance, and for which he will receive a receipt. Thus, for instance, if he estimates his package at one dollar, he will pay one cent, and if at one hundred dollars, he will pay one dollar insurance, and in like proportion for packages of any other value.

Very few persons it is presumed, will dislike this regulation; it will however, be optionable with every one to avail himself of this security or not. But the proprietors think it right to state very explicitly, that they will be responsible for the safe delivery of no package, which is not regularly entered, and for which an insurance receipt cannot be produced.

In the distribution of the route, the greatest care has bren taken to fix on such places and taverns as always afford a good accommodation and entertainment for the passengers at the most reasonable rates The stages are well equipped furnished with fleet and steady horses, and committed to the care of intelligent sober and obliging drivers. The proprietors themselves live at the different towns and villages where the stages will stop, so that the conduct of the persons they employ is continually an object of their attention.—They take care also to see that the passengers are well provided for and politely treated at the taverns, and that no sort of chicanery or insolence is practised upon them; in short, they have spared neither pains nor expence to render the SWIFT-SURE the very best line of stages in America.

The line has now run nearly a month, during which time a great number of gentlemen have gone through, both from Philadelphia and New-York. Every passenger has found the road to surpass very far all that has been said of its excellence; and the Proprietors of the Swift Sure are extremely happy to hear the behaviou of their drivers, and the treatment at Taverns spoken of with the highest satisfaction.
